

Module/Topic/Unit/Week/Chapter

Dates: From Sept 7 - 13, 2015

Assignments are due Sunday, Sept 13 at 11:59pm

Topic Learning Outcomes

- List of the "big picture" items & topics you will be covering.
 - Explain what the course seeks to achieve during this specific timeframe.
 - Describe the knowledge and cognitive skills that will be in the spotlight.
 - The intentions for what the student should be able to do at completion of the module.
-

Learning Activities

(These are definite instructions and guidance is required for a student assignment sheet. This segment of the assignment sheet describes the learning process.)

Method of Instruction

How will students have access to the required information? Provide specific instructions such as process to access the tool provided. For example:

- Readings
- Instructor notes
- Demonstrations
- Guest speakers
- Videos/Podcasts
- Huddle Sheet (1 page reference document; protocols or procedures)
- Reference Materials

Coursework

Address the observable, measurable, specific competencies and/or skills. Describe activities students will perform in order to achieve the outcome. Provide specific instructions such as process to complete and submit the intended coursework.

- Discussion (chat/IM, email, wikis, blogs)
- Study guides

- Content clarification
 - Demonstrations
 - Self-Quizzes
 - Role Play
 - Videos/Podcast
 - Web Searches & LORs (Access experts, You-tube, Teacher-tube, Merlot, Cameo)
 - Case studies
 - Experiments/labs (class /at-home)
 - Reflection papers
 - Peer reviews/critiques
 - Projects (May span several weeks)
 - Student generated products for class
-

Assessment Tasks

Evaluation of Student Learning: The finished product for this piece of the course— used to measure how well you understood the material. This is how your instructor measures how successful you were in learning the given outcomes. For example:

- File upload
- Quiz
- Exam
- Discussions
- Projects/Products
- Demonstrations

Next Week

Share insight with students about coming topics, due dates, or changes in the calendar.

- Topic/Unit/Week #
- Upcoming due dates
- Upcoming exams